

HEGEL FAMILY SOCCER SCHOLARSHIP

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

The Hegel Family—parents John and Betsy and children Scott and Emily— is pleased to be able to offer this scholarship to a deserving member of the Hononegah High School soccer community. Soccer is very important to the Hegel family, particularly Scott and Emily each of whom began playing for the Hononegah Lions club team and played throughout high school, leading their high school teams to lots of success in their careers. John and Betsy had supporting roles throughout their children’s soccer career and were rewarded with many great memories. Soccer has provided a lot of joy for the Hegel family and they are pleased to be able to give back by offering a scholarship that will recognize two individuals (one male, one female) who are leaders on their teams and in the community.

APPLICANT MUST:

- Be a graduating senior from Hononegah High School;
- Have been on the high school soccer team all 4 years of their high school career;
- Have a minimum GPA of at least 3.0/4.0; and
- Exemplify outstanding community service.

Transfer students are eligible. The Hegel Family Soccer Scholarship will be awarded to two students—one male, one female—every year.

DEADLINE: February 1
