

NANCY KALCHBRENNER SCHOLARSHIP

providing educational resources for first generation college students from Rockford Public School

APPLICANTS MUST:

- Be a graduating senior from a Rockford Public Schools high school;
- Be a first generation college student;
- Have a minimum GPA of 2.5/4.0;
- Demonstrate the ability to achieve goals, and balance work, school, and volunteer activities; and
- Submit an essay that describes ways you have had to balance school, work, and other commitments to help you succeed and obstacles that made this especially difficult. Applicants must also relate how that experience will help you be successful in college and beyond.

This scholarship was established by Nancy Kalchbrenner's family and friends to honor her long-standing commitment to the Rockford community and to the Rockford Public Schools.

Nancy served faithfully on the school board for eight years and enthusiastically served as President for six years. Upon her retirement from the school board, her family and friends believed that a scholarship in Nancy's name was the ideal way to ensure that her legacy of service will live on.
