

R.I.S.E. NURSING SCHOLARSHIP

Supporting current Certified Nursing Assistants (CNAs) who want to continue their medical education.

HISTORY

R.I.S.E. stands for Respecting, Investing, and Supporting Empowerment. This fund was established by a family who saw the impact great CNAs had on the services provided for their mother while she lived at Fairhaven Christian Retirement Center. They also became aware of the barriers that faced CNAs who wished to continue their medical education faced, including but not limited to paying for school. The R.I.S.E. Scholarship is intended to help CNAs who provide exceptional care, respect, and dignity to their patients overcome those barriers and achieve their medical education goals.

The hand of the woman who inspired the R.I.S.E. scholarship is pictured above, holding the hand of her granddaughter.

APPLICANTS MUST:

- Have a nursing aid certificate (CNA) and be currently employed as a CAN at a long-term care facility* in the northern Illinois region.
