

RICHARD L. BERNARDI MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Dick Bernardi was an exuberant man. He approached all aspects of life with passion and intensity. He was eminently kind, fair, and honorable. He had an incredible sense of humor and knew when to laugh at himself. He gave lovingly of himself to his family, friends, pets, and community.

He believed education was the key to a successful and useful life. He also believed a person could be anything they wanted to be if they worked hard and prepared. He encouraged everyone to excel in whatever he or she chose to do. He was highly competitive, and although he loved to win, he believed the important thing was to always perform at the highest level. His enthusiasm and love for life were conveyed to those whose lives he touched.
