

In Youth We Trust COUNCIL

LEARN. LEAD. VOLUNTEER. GIVE.

High school-aged students from Boone, Ogle, Stephenson, and Winnebago Counties are invited to join the IYWT Council!

What is IYWT Council?

In Youth We Trust (IYWT) is a youth philanthropy program that teaches grantmaking, community engagement, and leadership skills. The IYWT Council is made up of high school students from across Boone, Ogle, Stephenson, and Winnebago Counties.

What does IYWT do?

The Council meets one Saturday a month from September - May. Meetings are 2 - 3 hours and held at the Community Foundation of Northern Illinois in Rockford.

The Council manages a grant process that distributes up to $40,000 to community projects that benefit youth. Council members also participate in group volunteer opportunities and learn from guest speakers.

How do I get involved?

Are you looking for an opportunity to connect with peers from other schools, learn leadership skills, and serve our community? IYWT Council is looking for new members!

Full details and new member applications may be found online at cfnil.org/iywt. Attend the Council Kickoff Meeting on September 17 to meet the current Council and see what this group is all about!

Applications for the 2022-2023 school year are due October 1st. Visit cfnil.org/iywt to learn more and apply!
